

Hunger in America

Hi my name is Caroline and I am going to tell you all about hunger in America. And just to tell you malnourished means people in hunger. On October 11, 2010 it was told the the number of malnourished people has increased. Thousands of people die a year of hunger. Six million children die a year. It is sad how people die and suffer.

malnourished people.)

Opinion

I personally do not like hunger. I think it is sad that those people suffer or even die
